Indexhibit Two

Welcome to the demo for Indexhibit Two. There might be other people playing along at the same time. Play nicely. Put things back where they belong. Thanks.

The site will reset itself periodically.

Family Christmas Card - 1996

Drink Drawing - 1997

Draw a straight line, with out the aid of a straight edge, between two points that are set one meter apart.

Drink one pint of beer, then draw another straight line between two more points set one meter apart.

Continue this drawing exercise, drinking one pint of beer, then drawing a straight line between two points set one meter apart.

The drawing is completed when the participant refuses to drink any more.

Blank Reaction - 1997

1. Record an audience listening to a blank cassette tape on full volume. End the recording when a member of the audience reacts.
2. Record a new audience listening to the recording of the first audience listening and reacting to the blank cassette tape. End the recording when a member of the audience reacts.
3. Repeat step two until the blank cassette tape consists only of reactions to a blank cassette tape. New audiences may react before or after previous audiences.

1 Recording - 1997

1. Using a ten pence piece dial your answer machine from a public telephone
2. Let the answer machine record the sounds from the public telephone for the duration of the ten pence piece
3. Repeat (step one and two) ten times from ten different locations

The total duration of the piece will depend on the locations and time of each call

Total time = £1
